Quotes	Working with Coulombe was a fun and easy environment. He gives you the space to play with your role but always stays on the road he has planned. If your choices blend in good with it, he will no doubt work it in. The end results will be amazing! The music, the angles, everything; bringing the feeling of the movie into you. -Kyler Porche, The Wrong Profile. Coulombe is an actor's director. He allows his actors the space they need to work and create. It is a collaborative effort, not a one-way street that you sometimes find with other directors. He has a great ability in conveying what he needs and allows you the freedom to do - Todd James Jackson, Ax and The Wrong Profile. Michael is a great team leader and he knows what he can accomplish, how to achieve those goals, and understands what it takes to get things done in a timely manner. Aside from his outstanding leadership qualities, he is a great person to be around, and genuinely cares for his cast and crew. - Jake Brichta, Sounds Mixer, Sound Bros, LLC I've had the privilege of collaborating with Michael on a handful of projects, and what I value most about these experiences is that there is actually real collaboration each time. He is a confident director who knows what he is looking for, but is also open to suggestions from his key players. Add to that his tremendous energy and enthusiasm for each project he takes on, which is contagious, and you end up with a project helmed by a capable and motivated captain, and a also a crew that is inspired to give it their all as well. - Brandon Musselman, Cinematographer: Ax, The Wrong Profile, The Purpose of Apples.
